

The NAB is again over the line with their concern or control over satellite radio. This is a basic first amendment right and Americans do not support further unnecessary regulation.